

Revolt On President's Work-Relief Measure Worries Administration

WASHINGTON — The revolt against Roosevelt's work-relief bill disclosed a rebellion among supposedly loyal Democrats which has Administration leaders worried.

They won't admit it, but they are. And they have good reason to be.

The session is less than a month old. The measure was only the opening gun of the President's legislative program.

Yet on this first — and what was considered easy test, the fires of insurgency flared so fiercely that the House leadership saved its face only by making tactical concessions.

The White House always expected trouble in the Senate.

But the House, gagged and curbed, was to be the trump card up its sleeve.

In this chamber, according to inner council strategy, the Administration would put through legislation in the form it desired, then hold the House as a bargaining club over the Senate.

But with the House kicking over the traces on the first show-down the efficacy of this set-up became extremely uncertain.

It is true that in Major issue — the President's demand that no strings be attached to the $4,880,000,000 appropriation — the Administration was able to hold its line.

But it did so only after resorting to everything but the use of "brass knuckles."

The President had to abandon the much-desired provision empowering him to extend the life of emergency recovery agencies another two years. Also he had to give personal assurance that he alone would determine the allocation of the $4,880,000,000 fund.

Two things stand out in the relief bill upheaval!

First, — and as repeatedly predicted in this column — Old Guard Democrats and not liberals are the most serious legislative foe for the President has to reckon with.

Second, Speaker Joe Byrns is unable to hold his Old Guard lieutenants in line.

He started a campaign of discipline when he withdrew his promise to Henry Ellenbogen of a place on the Rules Committee after the forthright Pittsburgher had refused to vote for a gag rule.

But he was impotent when three hand-picked Old Guards on the Rules Committee — Dies of Texas, Smith of Virginia, and Cox of Georgia — started the rumpus on the relief measure.

Farley Boy

Few diplomatic appointments recently have caused as much concern as that of Antonio Gonzalez, American Minister to Panama.

He was a Farley appointee and soon after he was appointed, the State Department began to wish Farley had never seen him. In fact, Gonzalez was the one thing about Panama on which the State and War Departments agreed.

Both wanted him out. The State Department even hinted to some of Secretary Dern's army officers that they should take the lead in asking for his removal.

But Jim Farley was adamant. "Gonzalez delivered the Puerto Rican vote for us in New York City," proclaimed Jim, "and we're going to take care of him. You can't find another job for him who won't, but you can't fire him."

So that was what the State Department did.

They found Gonzalez another job — that of Minister to distant Ecuador. But, in order to do it, they had to transfer the Minister to Ecuador to Colombia, the Minister to Venezuela to Panama, and the Minister to Paraguay to Venezuela — all to take care of Jim Farley's vote-getter.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—A tidal wave of telegraphic demands for repudiation of the World Court today encouraged its foes as the senate neared a final vote on American adherence to the League of Nations tribunal.

The administration claims victory but the overwhelming pressure from "back home" threw doubt on the ultimate outcome.

The telegrams, totaling almost 100,000 early today, came from all classes of people. Thousands were sent by women, some of whom condemned the intervention of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, in behalf of the court, and others approved her stand. On the whole, the "people" were speaking against the court at a rate of seven to one, the tabulation said.

TABULATIONS NOTED

One target of the deluge was Senator Dieterich (D) of Illinois, who first opposed the court and then swung into line for it. His office reported receipt of nearly 4,000 telegrams and almost all of them endorsing the court. Other tabulations, at dusk last night, were:

Senator Copeland (D) New York, 19 for court, 2,630 against; Senator Davis (R) Pennsylvania, 55 for, 1,154 against; Senator Walsh (D) Massachusetts, 275 for, 2,200 against; Senator Longergan (D) Connecticut, 300 for, 3,130 against; Senator Couzens (R) Michigan, 24 for, 650 against; Senator Murphy (D) Iowa, 27 for court, 480 against.

The telegraphic deluge began Sunday night. Nothing quite like it ever happened before in the history of the senate. Nevertheless, Senator Bittman (D) of Nevada, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, said: "My guess is the vote will be 25 or 26 against the court and 58 for the court." MAROONED FAMILY SAVED BY PLANE

LAKEHURST, N. J., Jan. 29.—Sixty miles from Broadway, a family of four, marooned by gigantic snow drifts was saved from death by starvation today when food supplies floated down from the skies attached to parachutes released from a naval plane which took off from the air station here.

The four, Gingham Myers, his wife, their two-year-old son and one-year-old daughter, are snowbound, held prisoners in their home in the lonely blueberry.

BOY SUICIDES, SHOOTS SELF WITH PISTOL

Daniel McCain, 19, of Ashville
Commits Act After Family
Retires.

Daniel McCain, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McCain, of Ashville, committed suicide Monday at 11 p. m. shooting himself through the heart with a .22 caliber pistol. He died before a physician could reach the McCain home.

The youth, who joined the Civilian Conservation corps last summer and stayed only a week, remained in the living room when his parents, brothers and sisters retired. It was a short time later, as a Norfolk & Western passenger train was passing, that his family heard a shot. His father was the first to reach the room and he found the youth sitting in a chair still holding the revolver in his hand.

Dr. C. E. Bowers, county coroner, was called and went to Ashville with Sheriff Charles Radcliff and Deputy Miller Fissell. Bowers named the act suicide and attributed the motive to a "love affair."

Young McCain was born in West Jefferson Aug. 24, 1915 a son of James and Elizabeth Harris McCain.

He is survived by his parents, three brothers and six sisters.

The funeral will be Thursday at 10 a. m. at the Ashville United Brethren church with burial in South Bloomfield cemetery by E. P. Schlegel.

'Big Shots' Obtain Seats At Trial; 'Natives' Irate

COURTROOM, FLEMINGTON, N. J., Jan. 29.—Extra state troopers were on the job today to cope with the crowd trying to storm the courthouse to get into the trial of Bruno Richard Hauptmann.

A long line formed early and when the courtroom doors were opened every seat was taken in a jiffy.

Guards then tried to prevent others from coming in. They closed a big iron gate leading to a side entrance and forced the spectators to form a line. Hundreds waited patiently in the line with about a chance in a thousand of getting in. They did not seem to mind the cold.

Women in mink coats protested when the guards stopped them. They warned the police they had "influence," but the guards were more obdurate than yesterday.

There were about 400 persons less in the courtroom than yesterday. Among the early arrivals were Jack Laft, Jack Benny and Clifton Webb.

CITY HOUSING IS DISCUSSED

Health Board May Go Before
Council; Miss Phelps
Makes Annual Report.

Possibility was expressed today that the board of health will go before council in the near future to advise some method of improving housing conditions as they now exist in the city.

At a recent meeting of the board the conditions were termed "terrible" in certain parts of the city. One member of the board said: "Many of Circleville's occupied houses are not fit to live in either from a health or social standpoint. Something should be done at once."

In addition to discussing the housing question the board also talked of plans to immunize children of the first and second grades. The board also requested the Pickaway dairy to immediately tap into the W. Water-st sewer which has been constructed especially for this plant's benefit, according to the board.

The application of Miss Ethel Koerchofer, Berger hospital superintendent, to continue the maternity ward at the hospital was also approved.

Miss Charlotte Phelps, city nurse, made her annual report which lists 4,282 visits during the year.

The details of the report include: Pre-natal, 40 new cases, 115 visits; maternity, 55 new cases, 497 visits; infant, 55 new cases, 571 visits; pre-school (1-5 years), 32 new cases, 75 visits; tuberculosis, (Continued on Page 2)

BOY SUICIDES, SHOOTS SELF WITH PISTOL

Daniel McCain, 19, of Ashville
Commits Act After Family
Retires.

Daniel McCain, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McCain, of Ashville, committed suicide Monday at 11 p. m. shooting himself through the heart with a .22 caliber pistol. He died before a physician could reach the McCain home.

The youth, who joined the Civilian Conservation corps last summer and stayed only a week, remained in the living room when his parents, brothers and sisters retired. It was a short time later, as a Norfolk & Western passenger train was passing, that his family heard a shot. His father was the first to reach the room and he found the youth sitting in a chair still holding the revolver in his hand.

Dr. C. E. Bowers, county coroner, was called and went to Ashville with Sheriff Charles Radcliff and Deputy Miller Fissell. Bowers named the act suicide and attributed the motive to a "love affair."

Young McCain was born in West Jefferson Aug. 24, 1915 a son of James and Elizabeth Harris McCain.

He is survived by his parents, three brothers and six sisters.

The funeral will be Thursday at 10 a. m. at the Ashville United Brethren church with burial in South Bloomfield cemetery by E. F. Schlegel.

FIRST SALES TAX CHECKS MARCH 1

COLUMBUS, Jan. 29—Like a welcome rain after a long drought, retail sales tax pennies poured into the state's coffers today with a smoothness that astonished even the proponents of the new tax.

It estimates of the tax experts are correct at midnight tonight the state will have collected its first half million dollars in the 3 per cent tax on all retail transactions.

The new levy is calculated to bring in $5,000,000 a month or roughly $170,000 a day from the entire state. These figures, of course, are nothing more than estimate of the tax experts. The tax will have to be in operation a month or more before its productivity can be gauged accurately.

Local governments, deprived of a third of their former real estate tax revenue by the new 10 mill amendment, can look forward to their first slice of the sales tax receipts next March 1, the state auditor's office announced. Thereafter, they will receive monthly checks from the auditor.

'Big Shots' Obtain Seats At Trial; 'Natives' Irate

COURTROOM, FLEMINGTON, N. J., Jan. 29—Extra state troopers were on the job today to cope with the crowd trying to storm the courthouse to get into the trial of Bruno Richard Hauptmann. A long line formed early and when the courtroom doors were opened every seat was taken in a jiffy.

Guards then tried to prevent others from coming in. They closed a big iron gate leading to a side entrance and forced the spectators to form a line. Hundreds waited patiently in the line with about a chance in a thousand of getting in. They did not seem to mind the cold.

Women in mink coats protested when the guards stopped them. They warned the police they had "influence," but the guards were more obdurate than yesterday.

Residents of Hunterdon-co expressed displeasure at the ability of the "big shots" from Broadway to get in while they were left out in the cold. They besieged the sheriff with protests.

Newsreel photographers sat on the judge's bench before court opened and "shot" pictures of the crowd. It was the first time in days that photographers had a real chance to move around and they made the most of the situation.

There were about 400 persons less in the courtroom than yesterday. Among the early arrivals were Jack Laiz, Jack Benny and Clifton Webb.

Council; Miss Phelps

Possibility was expressed today that the board of health will go before council in the near future to advise some method of improving housing conditions as they now exist in the city.

At a recent meeting of the board the conditions were termed "terrible" in certain parts of the city. One member of the board said: "Many of Circleville's occupied houses are not fit to live in either from a health or social standpoint. Something should be done at once."

In addition to discussing the housing question the board also talked of plans to immunize children of the first and second grades. The board also requested the Pickaway dairy to immediately tap into the W. Water-st sewer which has been constructed especially for this plant's benefit, according to the board.

The application of Miss Ethel Koerchofer, Berger hospital superintendent, to continue the maternity ward at the hospital was also approved.

HIDDEN MONEY, PHRASES LEAD TO SURPRISES

Deceptive Examination
by Wilentz Leads Hauptmann to Blunder

LINDBERGH ACTIVE

"Afraid of What?" Cries
State Attorney

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN

COURTROOM, Flemington, N. J., Jan. 29— Bruno Richard Hauptmann fell into two traps while undergoing a gentle, deceptive cross-examination today at the hands of Attorney General David T. Wilentz.

Hauptmann blundered into one trap when he was explaining how he happened to take the Lindbergh ransom money he said he found in a shoe box in his home and hide it in three separate lots. He said: "I put $12,000 in a can, $2,000 in a bundle, and $800 more in another place. If any trouble came up, I would be on the safe side."

WILENTZ ON FEET

Wilentz immediately leaped at the opening and demanded, "What trouble were you afraid of?"

Hauptmann looked astonished and did not answer until Wilentz had to ask him three more times. Hauptmann's answers were extremely confused and Wilentz left the matter and drew him into the second trap. He began to question Hauptmann about the amount of money he had hidden in his trunk in February 1933.

Hauptmann said casually that he had about $750 in the trunk. G—"How much in December 1933?" A—"About the same."

Q—"How much in December 1932?" A—"About the same."

Q—"Well how much did you have in June 1932?" A—"About $1,000. It was not over $1500. Now I can explain—and Wilentz interrupted him."

"You don't have to explain this money. I just want you to be sure of the amount. Are you sure there was not over $1500 in the trunk?" "Yes," Hauptmann replied.

Yesterday Hauptmann had testified he had put $4,000 there which he had held out on his wife. Still another sensation came when Hauptmann used the expression, "Planned for a year already."

INFORMS JURY

The effect of this phrase was lost on Attorney General Wilentz but Col. Charles Lindbergh winced. Later after a recess Wilentz picked up one of the ransom notes and held it before Hauptmann. He read from the ransom note, "This kidnapping was planned for a year already."

Wilentz drew attention of the jury to the almost identical phrases.

Wilentz previously had aired Hauptmann's trading in Wall Street.

MAYORS OF THIRTY CITIES URGE GAS INDUSTRY PROBLE

SENATE ASKED TO REGULATE

"Monopolistic Octopus" Is The Charge Hurlled At Meeting In Columbus Monday.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 29—Characterizing the natural gas industry of the nation as a "monopolistic octopus," mayors of 30 middle western cities today memorialized the United States Senate to conduct a sweeping investigation of the entire industry and to place it under effective regulation.

The resolution charged that millions of cubic feet of natural gas are being wasted in Texas producing fields; that powerful utilities are buying up small pipe line companies to stifle competition, and that there is a conspiracy to hold rates above an "honest level."

SMITH CHAIRMAN

Another resolution was adopted organizing the group of mayors as "The Cities' Alliance." John W. Smith, former Detroit mayor and president of council there, was elected chairman, Daniel W. Hoan of Milwaukee, was named vice chairman.

Reviewing the discussions of the conference, Smith said that two fundamental facts were established—first, that there is an abundant supply of natural gas both in the Texas fields and in the fields of Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania, and, secondly, that there is a demand for natural gas which utilities are making no effort to supply.

Charles H. Keffer of Amarillo, Texas, an official of the Panhandle Conservation association, assured the conference that the Panhandle field can supply enough gas to serve most of the middle west if pipe lines are built to the producing area.

The potential gas supply in the Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania fields, according to H. R. Allensworth, Columbus consulting engineer, "probably is too great to be estimated." He declared that every county in the state of Ohio is a potential gas producing territory.

ATTACKS COLUMBIA

Smith specifically attacked the Columbia Gas and Electric Co., charging that "there will be little development in these fields by the Columbia Gas and Electric utility until the utility's monopolistic attitude is destroyed."

"We are confronted with an unscrupulous foe—the vast utilities empire with costly publicity bureaus," Smith told the conference. "To mislead the public, they charge us with attempting to disturb the honest investments of our own

WARD OPPOSES DAVEY'S R. F. C. PLAN FOR OHIO

Money Would Be For Unstable Building And Loans; Chardon Man Speaks.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 29—Governor Davey's envisioned Ohio R. F. C. to provide funds for releasing millions of dollars now frozen in unstable building and loan associations, today found a strong protagonist in Rep. P. E. Ward (R) Chardon, chairman of the House taxation committee, but most members of the legislature were chary about committing themselves until after further study.

Even chairman Ward interposed a reservation. He wanted the Ohio R. F. C. idea expanded to include assistance to distressed cities and other taxing units unable to retire maturing bonds or to make current interest payments.

NEED BOND ISSUE

Prime reason for the abounding reticence among members of the House and Senate was the huge state bond issue, amount unknown even by Davey, it would be necessary to float to make Ohio's own R. F. C. function.

Statewide bond issues are prohibited by the constitution. But it, like the statutes, can be amended if it is the will of a majority of the electorate. However, their pronounced unpopularity in the past makes them a topic the lawmakers as a group prefer to handle with gloves until a change in public sentiment is apparent.

"If the idea of a state R. F. C. is made broad enough it would have my approval," said Rep. Ward. "I even proposed it last year to the governor's special taxation commission, when the subject of refunding Cleveland bonds was up, but it was turned down."

If public response to the proposal is favorable, the governor likely will go ahead with plans to nurse it to fruition; if not, it will be dropped.

Briefly, the plan consists of the sale of bonds by the state at low interest rate, the proceeds to be used to purchase bonds issued against the best assets of building and loan associations in distress. These latter securities to bear a slightly higher interest rate than the state bond issue.

NUMBER OF YEARS

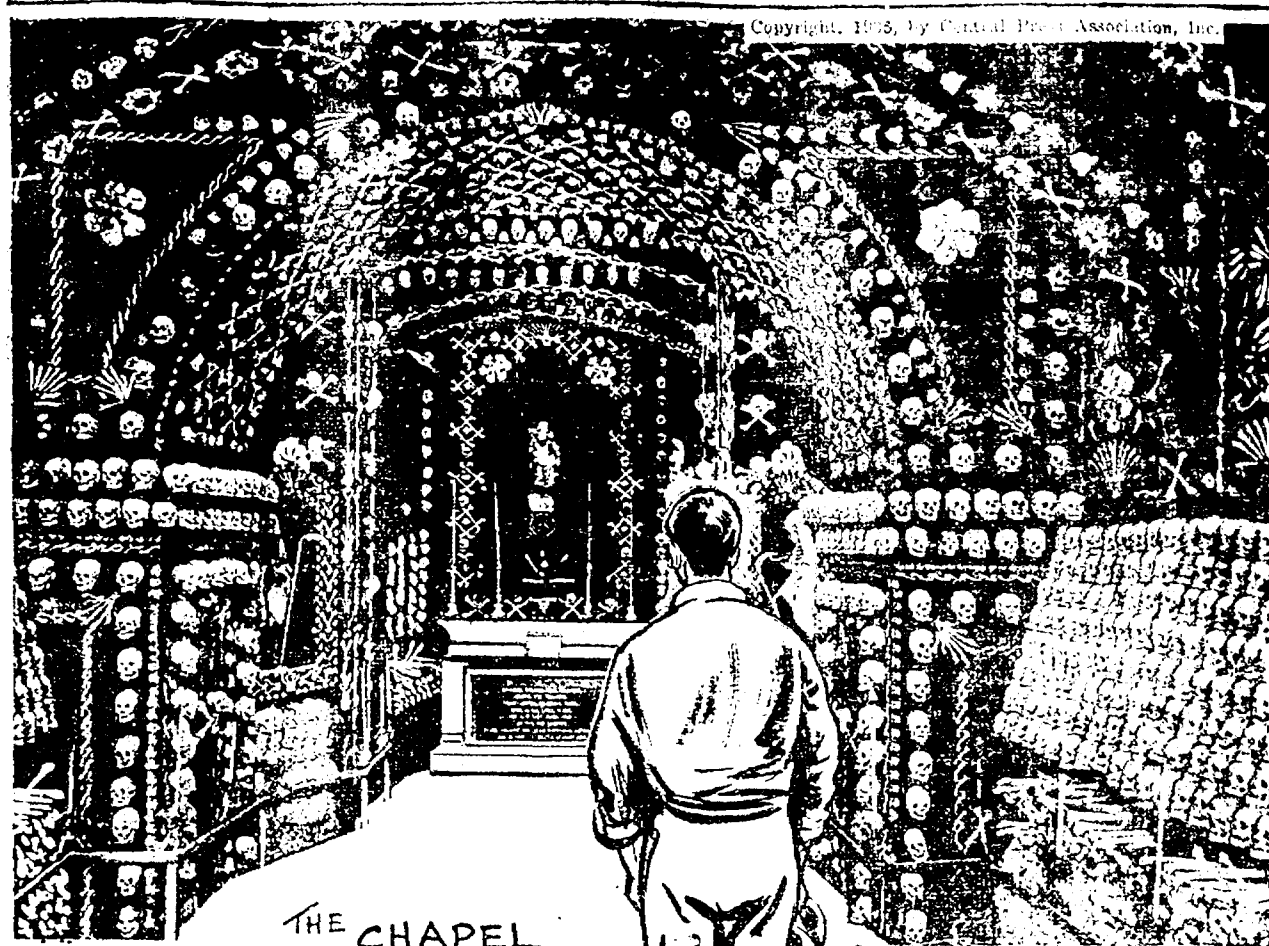

I would extend over a number of years the burden thousands of building and loan investors are now laboring under, and, according to the governor, the proposition would be "practically self-liquidating."

The Six Toughest

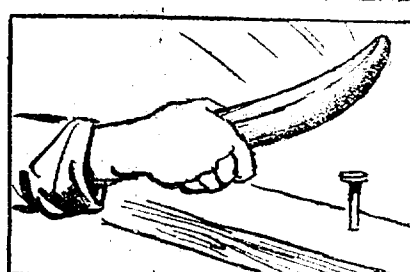

The six toughest plants in the United States are the cottonwood, rabbit bush, aromatic sumach, a shrubby penny-royal, a yucca and the peculiar gymnosperm, Ephedra. They are so hard that they are able to maintain themselves in the White Sands of New Mexico, a deposit that is 98 per cent pure gypsum, located in an area virtually without rainfall.

ATTEMPT TO KILL KAISER REPORTED

LONDON, Jan. 29.—An attempt to kill former Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany ten days ago was the reason for the "unusually quiet" celebration on his 76th birthday yesterday, it was rumored in Doorn, Holland, the ex-kaiser's home in exile, according to today's London Daily Mail.

A demented chef at Doorn house, the Kaiser's residence, was blamed for the attempt, said the report, and he was sent to an institution in Germany after 15 years in Wilhelm's service.

It was officially stated at Doorn house, however, that the Kaiser is in excellent health, and even put in his daily period of wood-chopping on his birthday. Festivities closed today with a dinner to the former monarch's scientific friends, at which the ex-crown prince was also present.

GINGHER AGAINST HIRING OF REAMS

COLUMBUS, Jan. 29—Senator Paul Gingham, Columbus Republican, opposed employment of Frazier Reams, Lucas co prosecutor, to conduct an investigation at the Ohio penitentiary. The senator, however, employed Lucas, Gingham said: "It seems to me the investigation so far has been for the purpose of preposterous removal of the warden."

FIVE ARE NAMED MASTER FARMERS

Five farmers this week receive the high award of "master farmer." They compose the 1935 class selected by the Ohio Farmer, state agricultural journal, and receive their awards at Farmers' Week now in progress at the Ohio State University. The ceremony is Thursday at 3:00 p.m.

The five are J. E. Van Fossen of Croton, T. L. Berry of Shreve, C. E. Holden of Little Hocking, Ray Perkins of West Dover, and H. J. Ruetsnik of Orwell. They were selected from a group of 105 candidates nominated by fellow farmers.

Judges were L. L. Rummell, field editor of the farm paper, John F. Cunningham, dean of the College of Agriculture at the university, and J. D. Briggs, chief agriculturalist for the state department of agriculture.

In eight previous years 76 farmers have been named "master farmer." They are chosen on the basis of proficiency in farming and marketing and activity in community affairs.

The 1935 master farmers have varied interests. Two are vegetable growers, one is a fruit grower, another is a dairyman, and the fifth is a general farmer. Their farms vary in size from 25 to 288 acres, averaging 132 acres. Average sales were $15,600 in 1934.

Judges declare that each of these farmers earned a net income in spite of low depression prices.

Another resolution was adopted organizing the group of mayors as "The Cities' Alliance." John W. Smith, former Detroit mayor and president of council there, was elected chairman, Daniel W. Hoan of Milwaukee, was named vice chairman.

Reviewing the discussions of the conference, Smith said that two fundamental facts were established—first, that there is an abundant supply of natural gas both in the Texas fields and in the fields of Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania, and, secondly, that there is a demand for natural gas which utilities are making no effort to supply.

Charles H. Keffer of Amarillo, Texas, an official of the Panhandle Conservation association, assured the conference that the Panhandle field can supply enough gas to serve most of the middle west if pipe lines are built to the producing area.

The potential gas supply in the Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania fields, according to H. R. Allensworth, Columbus consulting engineer, "probably is too great to be estimated." He declared that every county in the state of Ohio is a potential gas producing territory.

ATTACKS COLUMBIA

Smith specifically attacked the Columbia Gas and Electric Co., charging that "there will be little development in these fields by the Columbia Gas and Electric utility until the utility's monopolistic attitude is destroyed."

"We are confronted with an unscrupulous foe—the vast utilities empire with costly publicity bureaus," Smith told the conference. To mislead the public, they charge us with attempting to disturb the honest investments of our own

Money Would Be For Unstable Building And Loans; Chardon Man Speaks.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 29—Governor Davey's envisioned Ohio R. F. C. to provide funds for releasing millions of dollars now frozen in unstable building and loan associations, today found a strong protagonist in Rep. P. E. Ward (R) Chardon, chairman of the House taxation committee, but most members of the legislature were chary about committing themselves until after further study.

Even chairman Ward interposed a reservation. He wanted the Ohio R. F. C. idea expanded to include assistance to distressed cities and other taxing units unable to retire maturing bonds or to make current interest payments.

NEED BOND ISSUE

Prime reason for the abounding reticence among members of the House and Senate was the huge state bond issue, amount unknown even by Davey, it would be necessary to float to make Ohio's own R. F. C. function.

Statewide bond issues are prohibited by the constitution. But it, like the statutes, can be amended if it is the will of a majority of the electorate. However, their pronounced unpopularity in the past makes them a topic the lawmakers as a group prefer to handle with gloves until a change in public sentiment is apparent.

"If the idea of a state R. F. C. is made broad enough it would have my approval," said Rep. Ward. "I even proposed it last year to the governor's special taxation commission, when the subject of refunding Cleveland bonds was up, but it was turned down."

If public response to the proposal is favorable, the governor likely will go ahead with plans to nurse it to fruition; if not, it will be dropped.

Briefly, the plan consists of the sale of bonds by the state at low interest rate, the proceeds to be used to purchase bonds issued against the best assets of building and loan associations in distress, these latter securities to bear a slightly higher interest rate than the state bond issue.

NUMBER OF YEARS

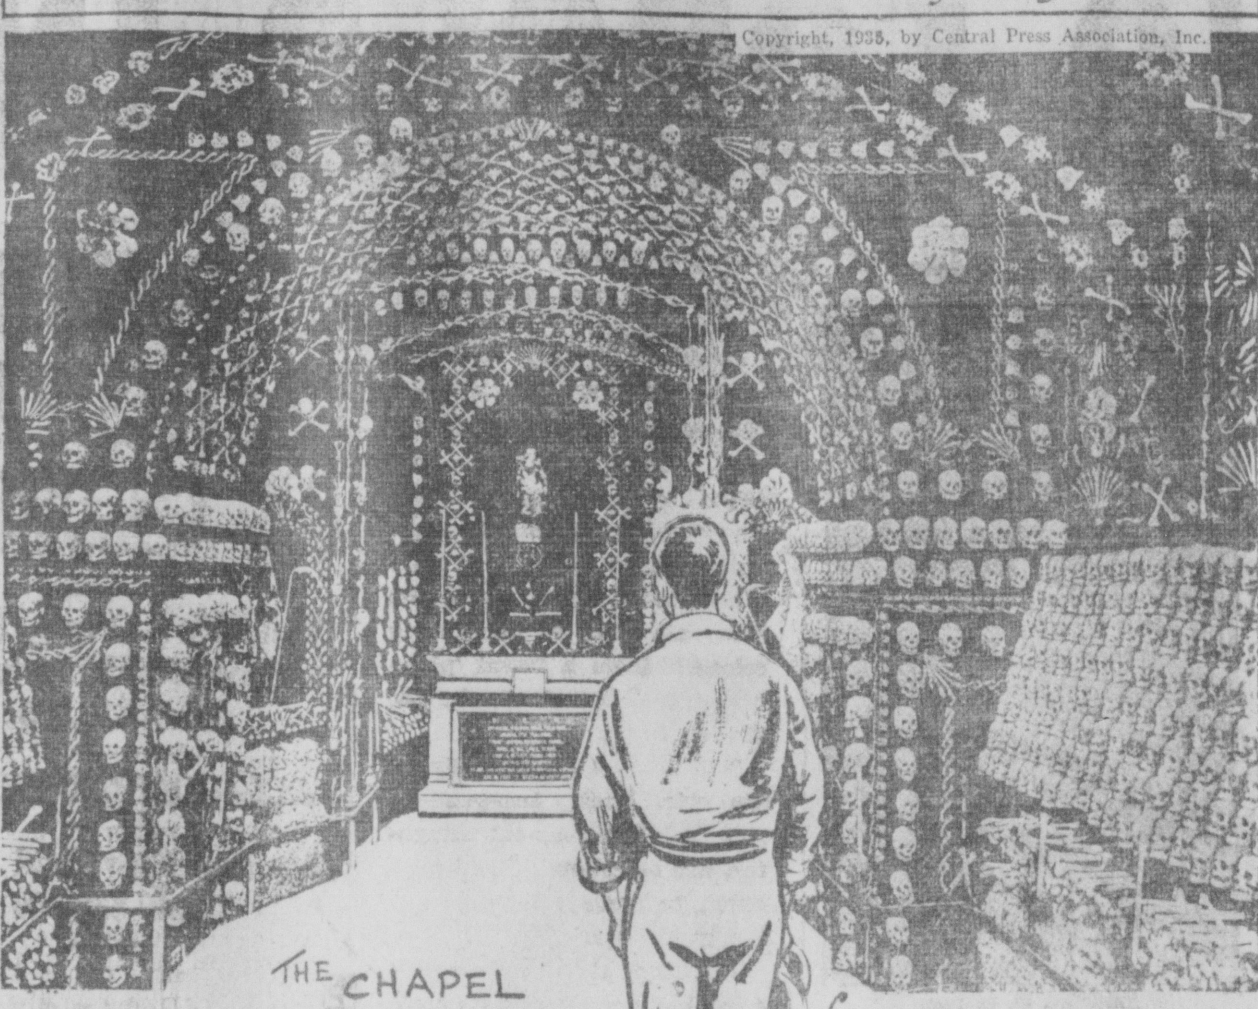

I would extend over a number of years the burden thousands of building and loan investors are now laboring under, and, according to the governor, the proposition would be "practically self-liquidating."

The Six Toughest

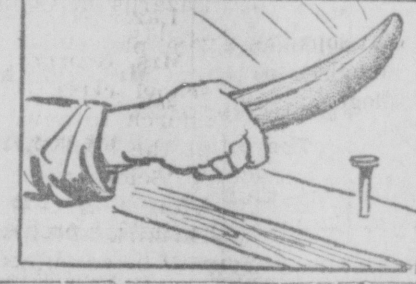

The six toughest plants in the United States are the cottonwood, rabbit bush, aromatic sumach, a shrubby penny-royal, a yucca and the peculiar gymnosperm, Ephedra. They are so hardy that they are able to maintain themselves in the White Sands of New Mexico, a deposit that is 98 per cent pure gypsum, located in an area virtually without rainfall.

ATTEMPT TO KILL KAISER REPORTED

LONDON, Jan. 29.—An attempt to kill former Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany ten days ago was the reason for the "unusually quiet" celebration on his 76th birthday yesterday. It was rumored, in Doorn, Holland, the ex-kaiser's home in exile, according to today's London Daily Mail.

A demented chef at Doorn house, the Kaiser's residence, was blamed for the attempt, said the report, and he was sent to an institution in Germany after 15 years in Wilhelm's service.

It was officially stated at Doorn house, however, that the Kaiser is in excellent health, and even put in his daily period of wood-chopping on his birthday. Festivities closed today with a dinner to the former monarch's scientific friends, at which the ex-crown prince was also present.

FIVE ARE NAMED MASTER FARMERS

Five farmers this week receive the high award of "master farmer." They compose the 1935 class selected by the Ohio Farmer, state agricultural journal, and receive their awards at Farmers' Week now in progress at the Ohio State University. The ceremony is Thursday at 3:00 p.m.

The five are J. E. Van Fossen of Croton, T. L. Berry of Shreve, C. E. Holdren of Little Hocking, Ray Perkins of West Dover, and H. J. Ruetsnik of Orwell.

They were selected from a group of 105 candidates nominated by fellow farmers.

Judges were L. L. Rummell, field editor of the farm paper, John F. Cunningham, dean of the College of Agriculture at the university, and J. D. Bragg, chief agriculturist for the state department of agriculture.

In eight previous years 76 farmers have been named "master farmer." They are chosen on the basis of proficiency in farming and marketing and activity in community affairs.

The 1935 master farmers have varied interests. Two are vegetable growers, one is a fruit grower, another is a dairyman, and the fifth is a general farmer. Their farms vary in size from 25 to 288 acres, averaging 132 acres. Average sales were $15,000 in 1934.

Judges declare that each of these farmers earned a net income in spite of low depression prices.

LOAN 3 MILLIONS

Loans totaling $3,483,355 were made to 1,098 distressed small home owners in Ohio during the week ending Thursday, January 24th, according to the weekly report of State Manager Henry G. Brunner, of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, given out today.

Of the above amount, $3,065,200 was disbursed in the Corporation bonds exchanged with former mortgagees. $254,135 was paid in cash to county treasurers for back taxes, $67,687 for necessary repairs, and the balance of $96,333 for accrued interest on the bonds, attorney's fees and appraiser's fees.

No wardrobe really is a wardrobe without at least one very simple, tailored dress. It's always smart, and makes something to fall back on for that rainy day, that morning jaunt, or a sudden trip. This one may be done in anything from gingham for the home to a smart navy blue woolen or heavy black crepe for the street and office—in either event, one of the new mustard yellow felt hats would complete your picture as fashionably as any could long for. Another suggestion would be a robin's egg and brown checked crepe, or an azure blue jersey.

County Garden Club Secures O'Brien for its March Meeting

Harry R. O'Brien, the "Dirt Gardener," has been secured as the speaker for the March meeting of the Pickaway-co Garden club. O'Brien is in great demand throughout Ohio and in April is one of the judges at the Chicago Flower show. He edits a page in "Better Homes & Gardens" magazine and is authority on all phases of flower gardening and landscaping.

His address is to be "What's New in the Catalogs." Visitors will be permitted at this meeting by paying 25 cents. No charge will be made to Garden club members and it is expected that visitors will come from many surrounding towns having garden clubs of their own.

The entertainment committee, comprised of Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mrs. Emmitt Crist, and R. L. Brehmer, has prepared a very interesting schedule of seasonal entertainment for the year. At the February meeting Mrs. Crist talks on "The Geological Formation of Our Soils" and Mrs. Glenn Nickerson talks of "Soils" covering the uses of sand, clay, and mulches. The meetings for the balance of the year cover such subjects as "Roses," "The Arrangement of Cut Flowers," "Improvement in Our Flower Show," "Bulbs for Fall Planting," "Tucking in the Garden for Winter," "Hardy Chrysanthemums," "Care of House Plants in Winter," "More Perennials for Next Year," and "Holiday Decorations."

The Spring Flower show to be put on by the club under the supervision of Mrs. W. E. Caskey promises to be an innovation for Circleville and should stimulate interest in flowers and gardening.

Circleville is referred to by persons passing through as "The Town of Well Painted Houses" and with the increasing interest in flowers, gardening, and landscaping, the lawns and surroundings will soon be in keeping with the well painted houses.

PATTERN 9165

Here's a house frock that's not only slenderizing and trim because of its coat-like lines, but essentially practical at the same time, that you can slip into quickly—For it's the sort of smart affair just three buttons to fasten—and be sure of looking your housewife best! As every figure conscious woman knows, long panels sweeping from hem to shoulder, back and front, create an illusion of slenderness—and those pert revers add a nice clean-cut look to the whole frock. Of course, one of the best points about this model is that it may be spread out and ironed flat. Choose printed percale, broadcloth or gingham for it!

Pattern 9165 may be ordered only in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 4 3-8 yards 36 inch fabric.

County Garden Club Secures O'Brien for its March Meeting

Harry R. O'Brien, the "Dirt Gardener," has been secured as the speaker for the March meeting of the Pickaway-co Garden club. O'Brien is in great demand throughout Ohio and in April is one of the judges at the Chicago Flower show. He edits a page in "Better Homes & Gardens" magazine and is authority on all phases of flower gardening and landscaping.

His address is to be "What's New in the Catalogs." Visitors will be permitted at this meeting by paying 25 cents. No charge will be made to Garden club members and it is expected that visitors will come from many surrounding towns having garden clubs of their own.

The entertainment committee, comprised of Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mrs. Emmitt Crist, and R. L. Brehmer, has prepared a very interesting schedule of seasonable entertainment for the year. At the February meeting Mrs. Crist talks on "The Geological Formation of Our Soils" and Mrs. Glenn Nickerson talks of "Soils" covering the uses of sand, clay, and mulches. The meetings for the balance of the year cover such subjects as "Roses," "The Arrangement of Cut Flowers," "Improvement in Our Flower Show," "Bulbs for Fall Planting," "Tucking in the Garden for Winter," "Hardy Chrysanthemums," "Care of House Plants in Winter," "More Perennials for Next Year," and "Holiday Decorations."

The Spring Flower show to be put on by the club under the supervision of Mrs. W. E. Caskey promises to be an innovation for Circleville and should stimulate interest in flowers and gardening.

Circleville is referred to by persons passing through as "The Town of Well Painted Houses" and with the increasing interest in flowers, gardening, and landscaping, the laws and surroundings will soon be in keeping with the well painted houses.

MAYORS OF THIRTY CITIES URGE GAS INDUSTRY PROBI

SENATE ASKED TO REGULATE

"Monopolistic Octopus" Is The Charge Hurdled At Meeting In Columbus Monday.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 29—Characterizing the natural gas industry of the nation as a "monopolistic octopus," mayors of 30 middle western cities today memorialized the United States Senate to conduct a sweeping investigation of the entire industry and to place it under effective regulation.

The resolution charged that millions of cubic feet of natural gas are being wasted in Texas producing fields; that powerful utilities are buying up small pipe line companies to stifle competition, and that there is a conspiracy to hold rates above an "honest level."

SMITH CHAIRMAN

Another resolution was adopted organizing the group of mayors as "The Cities' Alliance." John W. Smith, former Detroit mayor and president of council there, was elected chairman. Daniel W. Hoan of Milwaukee, was named vice chairman.

Reviewing the discussions of the conference, Smith said that two fundamental facts were established—first, that there is an abundant supply of natural gas both in the Texas fields and in the fields of Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania, and, secondly, that there is a demand for natural gas which utilities are making no effort to supply.

Charles H. Keffer of Amarillo, Texas, an official of the Panhandle Conservation association, assured the conference that the Panhandle field can supply enough gas to serve most of the middle west if pipe lines are built to the producing area.

The potential gas supply in the Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania fields, according to H. R. Allenworth, Columbus consulting engineer, "probably is too great to be estimated." He declared that every county in the state of Ohio is a potential gas producing territory.

ATTACKS COLUMBIA

Smith specifically attacked the Columbia Gas and Electric Co., charging that "there will be little development in these fields by the Columbia Gas and Electric utility until the utility's monopolistic attitude is destroyed."

"We are confronted with an unscrupulous foe—the vast utilities empire with costly publicity bureaus," Smith told the conference. To mislead the public, they charge us with attempting to disturb the honest investments of our own

Money Would Be For Unstable Building And Loans; Chardon Man Speaks.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 29—Governor Davey's envisioned Ohio R. F. C. to provide funds for releasing millions of dollars now frozen in unstable building and loan associations, today found a strong protagonist in Rep. P. E. Ward (R) Chardon, chairman of the House taxation committee, but most members of the legislature were chary about committing themselves until after further study.

Even chairman Ward interposed a reservation. He wanted the Ohio R. F. C. idea expanded to include assistance to distressed cities and other taxing units unable to retire maturing bonds or to make current interest payments.

NEED BOND ISSUE

Prime reason for the abounding reticence among members of the House and Senate was the huge state bond issue, amount unknown even by Davey, it would be necessary to float to make Ohio's own R. F. C. function.

Statewide bond issues are prohibited by the constitution. But it, like the statutes, can be amended if it is the will of a majority of the electorate. However, their pronounced unpopularity in the past makes them a topic the lawmakers as a group prefer to handle with gloves until a change in public sentiment is apparent.

"If the idea of a state R. F. C. is made broad enough it would have my approval," said Rep. Ward. "I even proposed it last year to the governor's special taxation commission, when the subject of refunding Cleveland bonds was up, but it was turned down."

If public response to the proposal is favorable, the governor likely will go ahead with plans to nurse it to fruition; if not, it will be dropped.

Briefly, the plan consists of the sale of bonds by the state at low interest rate, the proceeds to be used to purchase bonds issued against the best assets of building and loan associations in distress, these latter securities to bear a slightly higher interest rate than the state bond issue.

NUMBER OF YEARS

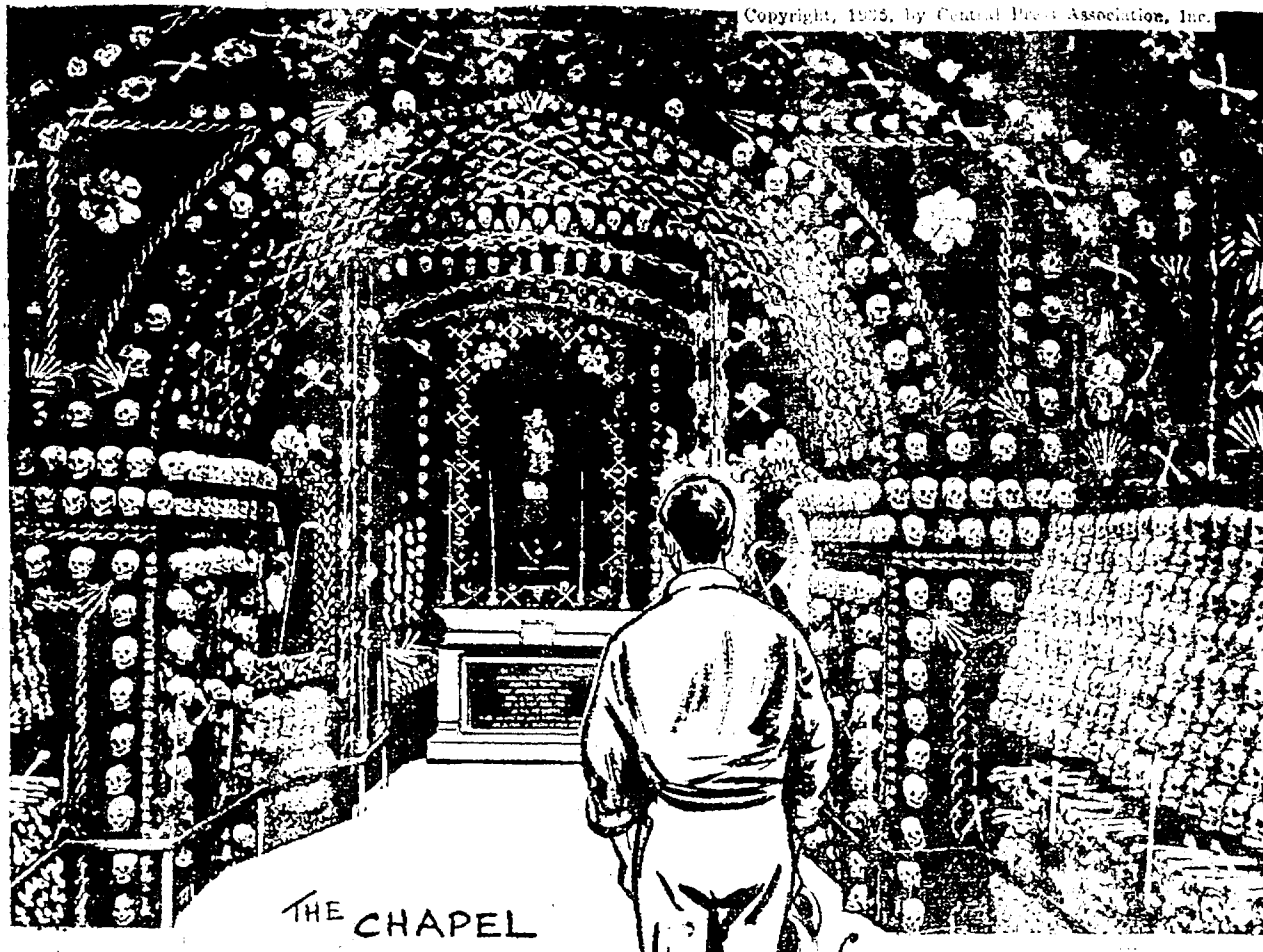

I would extend over a number of years the burden thousands of building and loan investors are now laboring under, and, according to the governor, the proposition would be "practically self-liquidating."

The Six Toughest

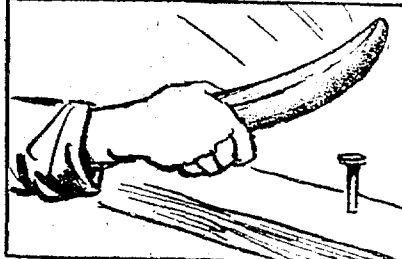

The six toughest plants in the United States are the cottonwood, rabbit bush, aromatic sumach, a shrubby penny-royal, a yucca and the peculiar gymnosperm, Ephedra. They are so hardy that they are able to maintain themselves in the White Sands of New Mexico, a deposit that is 98 per cent pure gypsum, located in an area virtually without rainfall.

ATTEMPT TO KILL KAISER REPORTED

LONDON, Jan. 29—An attempt to kill former Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany ten days ago was the reason for the "unusually quiet" celebration on his 76th birthday yesterday, it was rumored in Doorn, Holland, the ex-kaiser's home in exile, according to today's London Daily Mail.

A demented chef at Doorn house, the Kaiser's residence, was blamed for the attempt, said the report, and he was sent to an institution in Germany after 15 years in Wilhelm's service.

It was officially stated at Doorn house, however, that the Kaiser is in excellent health, and even put in his daily period of wood-chopping, on his birthday. Festivities closed today with a dinner to the former monarch's scientific friends, at which the ex-crown prince was also present.

GINGHER AGAINST HIRING OF REAMS

COLUMBUS, Jan. 29—Senator Paul Ginger, Columbus Republican, opposed employment of Frazier Reams, Lucas-co prosecutor, to conduct an investigation at the Ohio penitentiary. The senator, however, employed Lucas, Ginger said: "It seems to me the investigation so far has been for the purpose of pre-emptory removal of the warden."

FIVE ARE NAMED MASTER FARMERS

Five farmers this week receive the high award of "master farmer." They compose the 1935 class selected by the Ohio Farmer, state agricultural journal, and receive their awards at Farmers' Week now in progress at the Ohio State University. The ceremony is Thursday at 3:00 p.m.

The five are J. E. Van Fossen of Croton, T. L. Berry of Shreve, C. E. Holden of Little Hocking, Ray Perkins of West Dover, and H. J. Ruetnik of Orwell. They were selected from a group of 105 candidates nominated by fellow farmers.

Judges were L. L. Rummell, field editor of the farm paper, John F. Cunningham, dean of the College of Agriculture at the university, and J. D. Bragg, chief agriculturist for the state department of agriculture.

In eight previous years 76 farmers have been named "master farmer." They are chosen on the basis of proficiency in farming and marketing and activity in community affairs.

The 1935 master farmers have varied interests. Two are vegetable growers, one is a fruit grower, another is a dairyman, and the fifth is a general farmer. Their farms vary in size from 25 to 288 acres, averaging 132 acres. Average sales were $15,000 in 1934.

Judges declare that each of these farmers earned a net income in spite of low depression prices.

Of the above amount, $3,065,200 was disbursed in the Corporation bonds exchanged with former mortgages. $254,135 was paid in cash to county treasurers for back taxes, $67,687 for necessary repairs, and the balance of $96,333 for accrued interest on the bonds, attorney's fees and appraiser's fees.

This Lacy Crocheted Blouse is Effective In Yarn of Spring

PATTERN 5287

Spring is in the air—at least where clothes are concerned. Here is a simple crochet blouse that will make you think of spring while your crochet hook is flying. It is an exclusive Alice Brooks model designed with all the skill and good taste peculiar to these patterns. The plain filet mesh of the body of the blouse contrasts with the bold lacy design of sleeves and scarf. You can make it without the scarf, for the line of the raglan sleeve always is effective. The toque—it's simplest thing to make—is the sort of thing you'll be happy to have in your Spring wardrobe. The blouse is equally lovely in yarn or string, so get busy and be ready to accept all the admiration you'll call forth when you wear this blouse.

In Pattern 5287 you will find complete instructions for making the set shown; an illustration of it and the stitches needed; material requirements, and color arrangements.

No wardrobe really is a wardrobe without at least one very simple, tailored dress. It's always smart, and makes something to fall back on for that rainy day, that morning jaunt, or a sudden trip. This one may be done in anything from gingham for the home to a smart navy blue woolen or heavy black crepe for the street and office in either event, one of the new mustard yellow felt hats would complete your picture as fashionably as any could long for. Another suggestion would be a robin's egg and brown checked crepe, or an azure blue jersey.

County Garden Club Secures O'Brien for its March Meeting

Harry R. O'Brien, the "Dirt Gardener," has been secured as the speaker for the March meeting of the Pickaway-co Garden club. O'Brien is in great demand throughout Ohio and in April is one of the judges at the Chicago Flower show. He edits a page in "Better Homes & Gardens" magazine and is authority on all phases of flower gardening and landscaping.

His address is to be "What's New in the Catalogs." Visitors will be permitted at this meeting by paying 25 cents. No charge will be made to Garden club members and it is expected that visitors will come from many surrounding towns having garden clubs of their own.

The entertainment committee, comprised of Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mrs. Emmitt Crist, and R. L. Brehmer, has prepared a very interesting schedule of seasonal entertainment for the year. At the February meeting Mrs. Crist talks on "The Geological Formation of Our Soils" and Mrs. Glenn Nickerson talks of "Soils" covering the uses of sand, clay, and mulches. The meetings for the balance of the year cover such subjects as "Roses," "The Arrangement of Cut Flowers," "Improvement in Our Flower Show," "Bulbs for Fall Planting," "Tucking in the Garden for Winter," "Hardy Chrysanthemums," "Care of House Plants in Winter," "More Perennials for Next Year," and "Holiday Decorations."

The Spring Flower show to be put on by the club under the supervision of Mrs. W. E. Caskey promises to be an innovation for Circleville and should stimulate interest in flowers and gardening.

Circleville is referred to by persons passing through as "The Town of Well Painted Houses" and with the increasing interest in flowers, gardening, and landscaping, the lawns and surroundings will soon be in keeping with the well painted houses.

PATTERN 9165

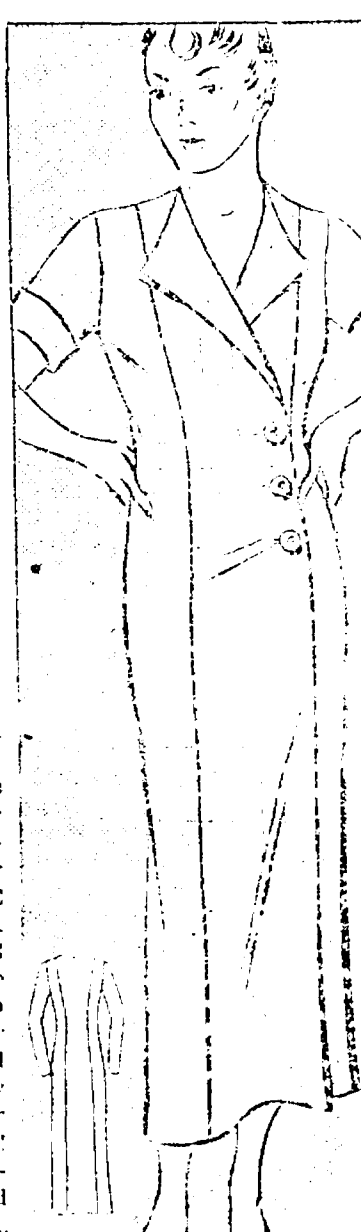

Here's a house frock that's not only slenderizing and trim because of its coat-like lines—but essentially practical at the same time, that you can slip into quickly. For it's the sort of smart affair just three buttons to fasten—and be sure of looking your housewifely best! As every figure-conscious woman knows, long panels sweeping from hem to shoulder, back and front, create an illusion of slenderness—and those pert revers add a nice clean-cut look to the whole frock. Of course, one of the best points about this model is that it may be spread out and ironed flat. Choose pinstriped percale, broadcloth or gingham for it!

Pattern 9165 may be ordered only in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 4 3-8 yards 36 inch fabric.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 29.—Xavier's cage squad was being schooled by hard drills today in preparation for the clash Saturday night with the Battling Bishops of Ohio Wesleyan who will invade the city in an attempt to wire out a 29 to 28 defeat at the hands of the Musketeers last night.

Both teams are given an even chance in this year's renewal of the feud. Four of the Bishops who played in the tilt last year will be back in uniform against the local quintet, with John McAdams, a Wesleyan sophomore, the only new face in the Ohio line-up.

Wesleyan and Xavier both won eight of their nine games this season. The Bishops amassed 407 points while the Musketeers rolled up 338. However, the 69 point advantage there is evened by the defensive records where Xavier holds an 87-point advantage, holding its opponents to 213 while Wesleyan's opponents tallied 300.

About This And That

BY THE SECOND GUESSER

ROOKIES COLLEGIANS

One-third of the 96 raw rookies to be taken to spring training camps by American league clubs are college men. Not all of them are graduates cum laude, but at least they started out as college men, anyway. Of the 33 juniors, most from colleges, 11 are fraternity men, according to Henry P. Edwards' carefully prepared roster of newcomers. The American league publicist lets no fraternity man escape his eye.

CUMMINGS HITS JINX

Wild Bill Cummings, national automobile racing champion, has not only shaken off the jinx which has consistently followed him, but he name which belies him. The amiable young ex-humble boy who won the annual 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway last year has apparently overcome the smaller misfortunes which always snatched victory away from him in the final moments of near success, and drove such a careful, studied race last day as to stamp him as anything but wild.

Cummings will again compete for his native brick course on Recreation Day.

WESLEYAN RECORD BEST

A survey of Buckeye conference basketball since the league's origin in 1925-26 indicates that Ohio Wesleyan has the best won-and-lost record.

The Battling Bishops since that time have won 64 games and lost 18. Cincinnati has the next best mark with 52 victories and 40 defeats, while Ohio university is third with 42 wins and 49 losses. Miami has won 30 and lost 61, and Marshall, a comparative newcomer, has won nine and lost 14. Cincinnati has the most championships with two undisputed titles and two ties. Ohio Wesleyan has one title and two ties. Ohio has won once and tied once, Denison, Wittenberg and DePauw, not now in the league, have been the other victors.

ROSS VANQUISHES KLICK IN SOUTH

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 29.—Barney Ross, lightweight champion of the world, won a clear-cut ten round victory over Frankie Klick last night at the new Miami stadium to retain his other crown, the junior welterweight championship. Klick, who won a draw against the Chicago titleholder in a bout on the coast last March, put up a hard fight but was outclassed by Ross. The champion won nine of the rounds. Dropping Klick for a seven count in the second round, Barney, weighing 136 pounds, one less than his rival, was off to a fast start and won the first round with a two-fisted body attack. Near the end of the next heat he reached the San Francisco boy with a left to the body and followed with the hard right to the jaw that sent Klick to the canvas.

Frankie got up after the referee had tolled off a seven count. The bell rang a few seconds later. Ross swept the next 3 rounds. Klick, seeing he was no match for the champion at boxing and infighting, resorted to a straight over hand right and might have been given a shade in the sixth. It was clearly Ross the rest of the way. The decision of referee Leo Shea and the two judges was unanimous.

Max Bear, the heavyweight champion, merely bursqued his way through a four-round exhibition with Jimmy Maloney, the old Boston heavyweight.

WIN NATIONAL SKATE EVENT

Marvin Swanson

Edna Schwartz

National skating contests at Oconomowoc, Wis., were won by Edna Schwartz of St. Paul and Marvin Swanson of Minneapolis. Miss Schwartz took the girls' mile race in Class B in 3:29.65. Swanson captured the United States speed skating championship by defeating Jimmy Webster of St. Paul on points.

COOPER DEFEATED BY YOUNG GOLFER

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.—Following the golden trail south, the best of golfers who took part in the fifth annual San Francisco national match play open championship today were en route to Agua Valiente Mex.

They left San Francisco with $4,000 in cash, the winner's share of $750 going to Harold "Jug" McSpaden, 26-year-old, Kansas City professional. As runner-up, Harry Cooper, poker-faced Chicago veteran, collected $400.

McSpaden and Cooper staged a sensational battle in the 36-hole final. Cooper faltered at the start and at the fifteenth hole he was five down. He won the seventeenth to start the afternoon three down. On the first nine holes after lunch Cooper came back to be even at the turn. But McSpaden went one up at the 29th with an eagle three, pitching thirty feet from the edge of the green into the cup. At the 31st he gathered another hole with a sharp par three. He ended the match on the thirty-fourth green with a birdie three.

Londos Near Defeat

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Jim Londos still is the grappling king of the world, though probably he never will forget a half hour's struggle to save his crown from the hands of young Doctor Harry Field of Philadelphia.

The giant medical student was tossed in 35:37 in Madison Square garden, but before he went out of the picture he gave the gorgeous Greek a dandy going over. Three or four times Fields had Londos close to defeat as he applied the pressure of his powerful legs in body scissors.

secretaries, clerks and stenographers suddenly were hustled out of the Senate Banking Committee. No explanation was given for the forced exodus.

When the room was cleared the transom over the outer door was even slammed shut. Obviously a very important confab was about to take place.

Newsman waited impatiently. Finally, the door was opened and the secretary of the committee emerged. The reporters made a rush for him.

"What's up?" they demanded. "Oh, nothing special. Jim Farley and Jesse Jones wanted to confer and asked for privacy!"

BUCKEYES WIN FROM CHICAGO IN 37-34 TILT

Haarlow Runs Wild, However; Wesleyan To Face Strong Xavier Team.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29 — Ohio State's basketball team was tied with Wisconsin today for fourth place in the Western conference title race after defeating the University of Chicago here last night 37 to 34.

Three field goals in the closing minutes of the first half sent the Buckeyes to the locker room with a 23 to 17 lead.

Bill Haarlow, star Chicago forward went to top place in the individual scoring column. Haarlow ran up fifteen points.

Ohio State	G	F	T
Whittinger	4	0	8

Thomas	3	3	9
Beitner	2	1	5
Dye	2	2	6
Totals	15	7	37

Duvall	2	0	4
Peterson	1	2	4
Lang	4	1	9
Kaplan	0	2	2
Totals	13	8	34

Score at half time: Ohio State 23; Chicago 17.

Umpire — Fred Young (Illinois). Referee — Frank Lane (Detroit Wesleyan).

CINCINNATI, Jan. 29 — Xavier's cage squad was being schooled by hard drills today in preparation for the clash Saturday night with the Battling Bishops of Ohio Wesleyan who will invade the city in an attempt to wipe out a 29 to 25 defeat at the hands of the Musketeers last night.

Both teams are given an even chance in this year's renewal of the feud. Four of the Bishops who played in the tilt last year will be back in uniform against the local quintet, with John McAdams, a Wesleyan sophomore, the only new face in the Ohio line-up.

Wesleyan and Xavier both won eight of their nine games this season. The Bishops amassed 407 points while the Musketeers rolled up 335. However, the 69 point advantage there is evened by the defensive records where Xavier holds an 87-point advantage, holding its opponents to 213 while Wesleyan's opponents tallied 300.

About This And That

BY THE SECOND GUESSER

ROOKIES COLLEGIANS

One third of the 96 raw rookies on to be taken to spring training camps by American league clubs are college men. Not all of them are graduates, cum laude, but at least they started out as college men, anyway. Of the 33 juniors from colleges, 11 are fraternity men, according to Henry P. Edwards, carefully prepared roster of newcomers. The American league publisher lets no fraternity man escape his eye.

CUMMINGS HITS JINX

Walt Cummings, national automobile racing champion, has not only shaken off the jinx which has consistently followed him, but he has won the Indianapolis 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway last year has apparently overcome the smaller misfortunes which always snatched victory away from him in the final moments of near success, and drove such a careful, studied race last day as to stamp him as anything but a wild.

Cummings will again compete in his native brick course on Saturday.

WESLEYAN RECORD BEST

A survey of Buckeye conference basketball since the league's origin in 1925-26 indicates that Ohio Wesleyan has the best win-and-loss record.

The Battling Bishops since that time have won 61 games and lost 18. Cincinnati has the next best mark with 52 victories and 40 defeats, while Ohio university is third with 42 wins and 49 losses. Miami has won 30 and lost 61, and Marshall, a comparative newcomer, has won nine and lost 14. Cincinnati has the most championships with two undivided titles and two ties. Ohio Wesleyan has one title and two ties. Ohio has won once and tied once, Denison, Wittenberg and DePauw, not now in the league, have been the other victors.

ROSS VANQUISHES KLICK IN SOUTH

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 29 — Barney Ross, lightweight champion of the world, won a clear-cut ten round victory over Frankie Klick last night at the new Miami stadium to retain his other crown, the junior welterweight championship.

Klick, who won a draw against the Chicago titleholder in a bout on the coast last March, put up a hard fight but was outclassed by Ross. The champion won nine of the rounds. Dropping Klick for a seven count in the second round.

Barney, weighing 136 pounds, one less than his rival, was off to a fast start and won the first round with a two-fisted body attack. Near the end of the next heat he reached the San Francisco boy with a left to the body and followed with the hard right to the jaw that sent Klick to the canvas.

Frankie got up after the referee had tolled off a seven count. The bell rang a few seconds later.

Ross swept the next 3 rounds. Klick, seeing he was no match for the champion at boxing and in fighting, resorted to a straight over hand right and might have been given a shade in the sixth.

It was clearly Ross the rest of the way. The decision of referee Leo Shea and the two judges was unanimous.

Max Bear, the heavyweight champion, merely burl-squid his way through a four-round exhibition with Jimmy Maloney, the old Boston heavyweight.

National skating contests at Oconomowoc, Wis., were won by Edna Schwartz of St. Paul and Marvin Swanson of Minneapolis. Miss Schwartz took the girls' mile race.

In Class B in a 29.05, Swanson captured the United States speed skating championship by defeating Jimmy Webster of St. Paul on points.

COOPER DEFEATED BY YOUNG GOLFER

Swedish Star Here

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29 — Following the golden trail south, the best of golfers who took part in the fifth annual San Francisco national match play open championship today were en route to Azusa, Va. to compete.

They left San Francisco with $4,000 in cash, the winner's share of $750 going to Harold "Duke" McSpaden, 26-year-old Kansas City professional, an runner-up, Harry Cooper, poker-faced Chicago veteran, collected $400.

McSpaden and Cooper staged a sensational battle in the 36-hole final. Cooper faltered at the start and at the fifteenth hole he was five down. He won the seventeenth to start the afternoon three down. On the first nine holes after lunch Cooper came back to be even at the turn. But McSpaden went one up at the 29th with an eagle three, pitching thirty feet from the edge of the green into the cup.

At the 31st he gathered another hole with a sharp par three. He ended the match on the thirty-fourth green with a birdie three.

Washington Merry-go-round

secretaries, clerks and stenographers suddenly were hustled out of the Senate Banking Committee.

No explanation was given for the forced exodus.

When the room was cleared the transom over the outer door was even slammed shut. Obviously a very important confab was about to take place.

Newsmen waited impatiently. Finally, the door was opened and the secretary of the committee emerged. The reporters made a rush for him.

"What's up?" they demanded. "Oh, nothing special, Jim Farley and Jesse Jones wanted to confer and asked for privacy!"

spent your time mostly in the stock market.

A—Yes.

Q—And you continued there up until 1934.

A—Yes.

Q—And you sold short, too, didn't you?

A—Yes.

Q—Prior to that period you had earned all about stocks.

A—Yes.

Q—Ever do any puts and calls.

A—Yes.

Q—What is puts and calls.

A—It is sort of an insurance.

LEARNED ALL TRICKS

Wilentz, in a sarcastic tone, said:

"You learned all the tricks of the trade—puts, calls, long, short, and so forth."

Hauptmann calmly observed:

"I made a few dollars."

Q—Did you have any business at all outside of this, and your connection with Isidor Fisch.

A—No, except a few days work.

Q—And the only money you put up from time to time was from Fisch, or out of the stock or fur accounts.

A—Yes.

At one point, when Wilentz began shooting in the questions about his financial activities a little too fast, Hauptmann held up a warning hand and admonished:

"Now, don't try to mix me up."

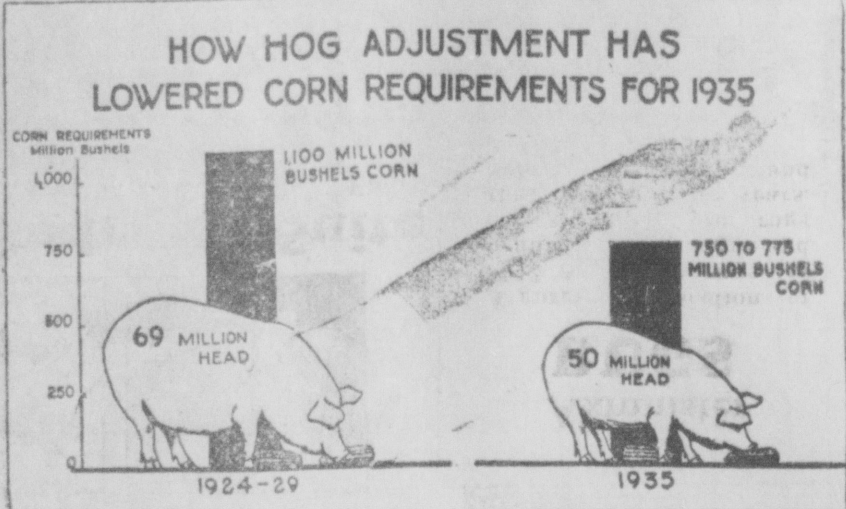

Q—You are quite an operator, aren't you? Can you tell me what a put or call is.

A—A put is up, a call is down. It's like insurance. You can lose only $137.50 on a 'hoonerd' shares.

Hauptmann rolled this little lecture out glibly, as though lecturing a class. He seemed to enjoy this sort of questioning.

After Hauptmann's testimony is completed the defense plans to call Mrs. Hauptmann to the stand. She is expected to make a valiant effort to support her husband's testimony.

Mrs. Greta Henckel, who by innuendo was characterized by Wilentz as a close friend of Hauptmann's, is scheduled to take the stand later.

EFFECTIVE control of corn acreage in 1935 is held to be essential because of the decline in corn requirements for livestock feeding since the 1924-29 period, and particularly since a year ago, as indicated in the above chart. As indicated in the above chart, the total number of hogs slaughtered in 1934-35 probably will not exceed 50 million head, as compared with an average of 70 million head in recent years.

Because hogs eat approximately one-half of the annual corn crop in the United States, hog adjustment this past year alone has lowered corn requirements between 325 and 350 million bushels under the requirement level of former seasons. The reduction of 10 to 15 per cent effected in cattle numbers by the drought liquidation under the Government drought purchase program has further reduced corn requirements for livestock feeding. A moderate reduction also has taken place in numbers of poultry, horses, and mules, which together ordinarily consume about one-fifth of the annual corn crop.

In view of these changes an acreage somewhat less than the average of recent years would meet actual requirements and would leave a reasonable margin for rebuilding the reserves now being depleted to meet drought conditions. Therefore, if farmers should follow the usual post-drought tendency and actually increase corn acreage in the spring of 1935, the largest surplus of corn over requirements ever produced in this country and relatively low corn prices might be expected.

By combining under the 1935 corn-hog production adjustment contract offered by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, farmers can hold corn acreage at a level that will avoid a return to an excessive level of production.

EAST RINGGOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Frazier will move to Lancaster the first of February.

Mr. and Mrs. John Trone and son, Earl, spent Sunday with Robert Codner and family in Groveport.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bartholomew and son, Tom, visited Sunday with Mrs. Frank Brown.

COLD WEATHER HAMPERS WORK

The cold weather of the past week has seriously interfered with operations on Ashville's government projects, The Chicago Bridge and Iron Works Co. showing the only activity on the elevated tank. One section of the huge tank is in place as is the 100 foot riser pipe, four feet in diameter. Workmen on this project, 100 feet in the air, have no trouble keeping cool.

Contractor Stoner has the bottom of the disposal plant in position and is waiting for warmer weather to proceed with the side walls. The concrete for the bottom was furnished by a Columbus firm delivered here in warm trucks already mixed.

Sewer contractor Wetzel did nothing last week on account of the freezing weather, as the sewer joints are laid in cement. Several manholes have been completed on Main-st, but the cold weather has stopped this work.

Contractor Bartling & Son are resting on their oars in water works line construction. Sewer construction precedes that of the water lines as both go in the same trench on Main-st.

A six foot screen has been placed in the second well and a test will be made soon. There seems to be no question as to volume of water.

Produces Vitamin A

Young herbage, besides being a rich storehouse of proteins, sugars, starches, and essential minerals contains carotene which in the body of an animal produces vitamin A. This vitamin promotes growth in farm stock as well as in human beings, and enables them to resist disease.

Justice Thomas W. Trenhard again took steps to prevent the overcrowding of the courtroom. So many persons are jamming into the courtroom daily that conditions have become intolerable. The judge warned that from today on standees will be barred. He said when all seats are occupied the doors will be closed to other would-be spectators.

The judge declared the overcrowding was undesirable "in more ways than one." He did not explain this but other officials pointed out the danger of a collapse of the courtroom floor and the danger of mob hysteria in the case of a sudden sensational development.
